Dear Mr Mary

I return you

Miss Cotten's letter for which I am truly obliged

The cause seldom loses

with a friend as does

Mr Cotten & those who were honored with his

private friendship

may say the same.

I am thankful for poor Mary that she has her mind so well, but I think she hardly knows yet how great it will be. I am just beginning to make arrangements about the Ball, for I must get me out my own dress and two really beautiful
gowns articuled.
